[redacted] Senate of the United States

[redacted], July 21, 1953

[redacted], (Two-thirds of the Senators present concurring therein), That the Senate advise and consent to the ratification of Executive O, Eighty-third Congress, first session, a treaty of friendship, commerce, and navigation between the United States of America and Japan, together with a protocol relating thereto, signed at Tokyo on April 2, 1953, subject to the following reservation, which shall be agreed to by the other high contracting party before ratifications are exchanged:

Article VIII, paragraph 2, shall not extend to professions which, because they involve the performance of functions in a public capacity or in the interest of public health and safety, are state-licensed and reserved by statute or constitution exclusively to citizens of the United States and no most-favored-nation clause in the said treaty shall apply to such professions.
